take him to a local bank and he could open an account with his check. She stated that she did not hear from victim during the day and victim did not return at his usual time. She further stated that victim relocated to the United States approximately in April of this year. She stated that victim was married in Greece and had four children. She stated that victim was planning to seek permanent residency and planned to bring his family to relocate. She stated that victim was a social drinker and never used narcotics. She stated that another son, residing in Poland, became addicted to heroin while he stayed in the United States. She stated she sent this son back to Poland to seek help and reduce access to narcotics. She stated that victim would never use any narcotics after seeing how this addiction destroyed his brother and that victim was very vocal expressing his hatred of narcotic use. She stated that victim did have a female friend in this country by the name of Marzena ORNACKI.

Joanna ROMANSKA, sister of the victim, stated that the victim resided with their mother in Highland Park. She stated that victim was employed at Remodelers Supply in Chicago for the past 2-3 weeks. She stated that victim relocated to the United States with hopes of permanent residency and planned to relocate family after establishing himself. She further stated that victim was a social drinker but would never use narcotics based on his experience of their brothers addiction. She stated that she was contacted by Detectives WOLVERTON and CRUZ on 13 May 2000 who informed her of victim's death.

aniel ROMANSKA, brother of victim, states that while on active duty in the armed services, he was notified of the victim's death and was granted leave for death in family. He stated basically the same, as stated by mother and sister, regarding victim's good character. He further stated that victim had on numerous occasions lectured him in regard to avoiding any experimentation with narcotics.

THIS INVESTIGATION CONTINUES.
